

CITY OF WOLVERHAMPTON COUNCIL

Heather Clarke

Heather Clark is Head of External Funding and Digital Projects at the City of Wolverhampton Council.

As Digital Co-ordinator her role includes proactively supporting the rollout of digital infrastructure, ensuring all residents benefit by co-ordinating digital inclusion activities across the city, supporting digital innovation and the growth of the digital economy including improving digital skills.

She has 22 years' experience working in local government in a range of areas including economic development, regeneration, digital, external funding, employment and skills and strategy.